Your Opinion Matters: Get Ready for the Central Strike Vote

OSSTF/FEESO's central strike vote will take place November 6–16, 2026. Every vote matters, and we want all OSSTF/FEESO members in the school board sector to be ready to participate.

You will need your Member ID to vote. Please take a few minutes to make sure you have it.

Don't know your Member ID?

Email GetMyMemberID@osstf.ca from the email address you have registered with OSSTF/FEESO. Your Member ID will be sent back to you automatically.

If you are a new member to OSSTF/FEESO, you may not have received your Member ID yet. Don't panic, you will need to contact Membership Database at membership-database@osstf.ca

Please be prepared to share one or both of the following documents:

- Your most recent paystub from your school board employer showing union dues deducted
- Your job offer letter from your school board employer with your name on it

OSSTF/FEESO strongly encourages members to provide a personal email address, as employer-issued email accounts are subject to monitoring. Please update your contact information today by logging into the myOSSTF portal.

Have questions or need help?

Here is a one-page document that explains how to login to the website to vote. You can also email membership-database@osstf.ca for assistance.

Test ballot: October 26–30

We will hold a test ballot from October 26–30 so members can practise logging in and voting before the central strike vote. The test ballot will open at 8:30 a.m. on Monday, October 26, and close at 9 p.m. on Friday, October 30.

All school board members are encouraged to take part so they can become familiar with the process and identify any login issues while there is time to resolve them. The test ballot is a practice opportunity. It does not count as your central strike vote.

Members who participate in the test ballot will be automatically entered into a draw for one of five $100 gift cards.

Central strike vote: November 6–16

The central strike vote will take place November 6–16. You will log in using the same process as the test ballot. The strike vote will open at 8:30 a.m. on Friday, November 6, and close at 9 p.m. on Monday, November 16. Results will be sent to members the following day.

Even if you complete the test ballot, you must log in again during November 6–16 to cast your central strike vote.

Local Strike Votes

Many OSSTF/FEESO local Bargaining Units are holding their local strike votes at the same time and through the same platform as the central strike vote.

Check with your local Bargaining Unit to confirm when and how your local strike vote is being conducted.

Extra support during both voting periods

Additional Membership Database support will be available during the test ballot and central strike vote to help members retrieve their Member ID and resolve login issues.

Support hours will be 8:30 a.m. to 8 p.m. ET, Monday to Friday from Monday, October 26 until Monday, November 16. Please note that support hours will close on the final day of voting on November 16 at 8 p.m.

You can reach membership database at membership-database@osstf.ca or by calling 416-751-8300 or 1-800-267-7867 (toll-free).
