UNDERFUNDED & OVER IT
LET'S FIX IT, TOGETHER
OSSTF/FEESO

Your central strike vote is open. Send the government a clear message.

OSSTF/FEESO's central strike vote is now open to all members in the school board sector.

Now is the time to send the government a clear message.

A strong YES vote shows that we are united, we expect better, and we are prepared to stand together for the working conditions our members need and the learning conditions students deserve.

Vote today. Encourage your colleagues to do the same. Every vote matters.

How to vote

You will need your Member ID to log into OSSTF/FEESO provincial website to vote.

Follow the instructions in this one-page guide to access the provincial website to cast your vote. If you are using a public or shared device, remember to log out of the OSSTF/FEESO website when you are done voting.

Voting opened at 8:30 a.m. EST today, Friday, November 6, and closes at 9 p.m. EST on Monday, November 16. Results will be sent to members the following day.

If you participated in the test ballot, you must log in again to cast your central strike vote. Your test ballot does not count as a strike vote.

Local Strike Votes

Many OSSTF/FEESO local Bargaining Units are holding their local strike votes at the same time and through the same platform as the central strike vote.

Check with your local Bargaining Unit to confirm when and how your local strike vote is being conducted.
